

New Lower Price For SAT™ and ACT® Prep™

A+ Skills Tutoring is pleased to announce new reduced fees for its SAT and ACT Prep courses. According to Debbie Mandell, CEO “we want to support Naples families as they struggle with the current recessionary economic environment – we want to make our courses more inclusive as families assist their students gain college admissions”. The courses include a free initial diagnostic test for each student which will pinpoint their strengths and weaknesses. For additional information and registration forms, please click here.
